

UCT Online High School

Improved Learner Access to Educational Resources with Snapplify Engage

Key Challenges

Fragmented Resource Access

Learners struggled with sourcing both digital and print materials, often turning to multiple platforms or providers.

Complex Resource Management

Managing and distributing course materials to learners was time-consuming and inefficient for administrators.

Limited Availability of Digital Books

There was a need to expand access to affordable and convenient digital textbooks.

High Costs for Learners

Print books and physical distribution posed a financial strain for learners, especially those studying remotely.

Improvements and Successes

UCT Online High School has seen significant improvements since adopting Snapplify, including:

✓ Centralised Platform

Snapplify Engage enabled seamless access to both digital and print books, all within a single platform.

✓ Streamlined Processes

Resource distribution and management were simplified for UCT Online administrators, saving valuable time.

✓ Cost-Effective Options

Learners could choose between purchasing digital or print books, often at reduced prices, making education more affordable.

✓ Enhanced Accessibility

Learners could access digital books instantly, overcoming geographic or logistical barriers.

“Snapplify Engage has completely transformed how our learners access educational materials. The convenience of a single platform for both digital and print resources has made life easier for learners and staff alike. The affordability of digital books has been a game-changer for our remote learners.”

The enhanced resource availability has positively impacted academic performance, enabling learners to focus on their studies without resource challenges.

Implementation

Digital Bookstore Integration

Snapplify Engage's platform allowed UCT Online High School to set up an easy-to-use online bookstore for digital and print books.

User Training

Learners and administrators were guided through the platform for smooth onboarding and optimal usage.

Content Licensing and Partnerships

Snapplify facilitated partnerships with publishers to ensure a wide range of titles were available at affordable rates.

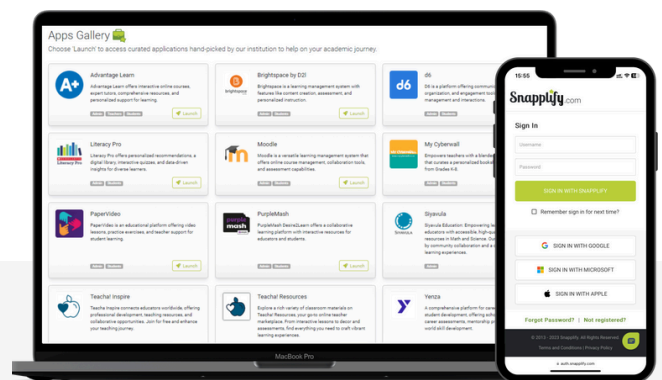

Scalable Digital Access

Snapplify provided a scalable solution that accommodated the growing number of learners enrolled at UCT Online High School.

Payment and Delivery Flexibility

The platform supported multiple payment methods and streamlined print book delivery for remote learners.

The decision to choose Snapplify

UCT Online High School selected Snapplify Engage for its comprehensive offering that catered to both digital and print needs, its cost-effectiveness for learners, and its track record of successful implementations with other academic institutions. The platform's user-friendly interface and Snapplify's responsive support team further solidified their decision.
